Power Analysis

Date: __________

Name: __________________________

1. What is power?

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

2. Read the news story and describe the instances where power is exercised or is present.

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

3. With a highlighter, highlight any sentences where power is exercised.

4. Who are the main actors in the story?

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

5. What are their interests in this story?

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
6. How did they try to influence each other? What strategies did they use?

7. Were they effective? How do you know?

