

Please join us for a

Faculty Grant Training Workshop and Recognition Luncheon

Grants at Augsburg: Tools to Enhance Your Scholarly Career

Friday, May 17th, 2013
9 am to 1 pm
Oren Gateway Center 100

Share information on how to utilize grants to achieve career goals, enhance student learning and engagement, and advance the work and reputation of the College. All faculty are welcome to attend; new faculty are encouraged!

Scheduled Events:

Guest Speaker

The Ever-Changing Sea of Federal Funding: Hints for Faculty at Smaller Universities and Colleges. | Michael Ceballos, PhD, University of Minnesota - Morris
Introduction by Matthew Beckman, Biology

Faculty-led Training Sessions

Why write proposals? | Joseph Erickson, Education
What does it take to submit a grant? | Benjamin Stottrup, Physics
Do I have support? | Erica Swift and Laura Roller, Institutional Advancement

Recognition Luncheon

Acknowledgement of faculty who have received grants within the past two years
Reflections and Advice for Faculty | Mark Engebretson, Physics

Please RSVP by May 8th

*indicate if you would prefer a vegetarian meal

Questions? Contact Erica Swift at swift@augsborg.edu or 612-330-1184